2. [] EMPLOYMENT Received a call from [] of Representative William S. Cohen's (R., Maine) office, requesting that brochures and application forms be sent to him at [] Maine 04091. Personnel is handling.

3. [] LIAISON Spoke with Colonel Steve Harrick, Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Legislative Affairs, who had requested two copies of the National Basic Intelligence Factbook. I told him we would be happy to send these to him today.

4. [] LIAISON Received a call from Linda Turner, on the staff of the Subcommittee on Antitrust and Monopoly, Senate Judiciary Committee, who requested a copy of an Agency report on the petroleum industry in China. After checking with [] OCI, the appropriate publication was obtained and sent to Ms. Turner.

5. [] LIAISON [] OGCR, represents the Agency on a NSC Law of the Sea task force. This task force primarily meets with the Law of the Sea Advisory Group composed of various legislators, outside businessmen, and academicians. During one of these sessions last weekend, Representative Paul McCloskey (R., Calif.) asked [] if he could see some examples of the Agency's work on this subject. [] is putting together a respective package and will be delivering it to OLC for Mr. McCloskey.

6. [] I asked [] OLC, to handcarry to Clark W. McFadden, Committee on Armed Services staff, a list of four publications on monitoring of Soviet Strategic Cruise Missile Development Programs and copies of the first two for his perusal. It was suggested that McFadden approach the Navy and D.A respectively for copies of items 3 and 4.

1. [] LIAISON I met with Representative Dale Milford (D., Texas) to discuss his recent trip to the Far East and the Administration proposals for the protection of classified information. (See Memorandum for the Record.)

2. [] BRIEFING I accompanied [] [] NIO, to a meeting with Mike Van Dusen, on the staff of the Special Subcommittee on Investigations, House International Relations Committee, and Allison Brenner, also on the staff of the Subcommittee. The purpose of the meeting was to go over the chain of events in the last days of the war in Vietnam. Van Dusen said that Ambassador Graham Martin was to appear before the Subcommittee on 27 January and that he wanted to make sure that the areas the Subcommittee would touch on would not create any additional problems for the Agency regarding information which had not been placed officially in the public domain. There were some follow-up questions which [] will prepare answers to.

22. [] LIAISON Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, called and said he was pleased to see the Director had sent the letters to House Speaker Carl Albert (D., Okla.) and Vice President Nelson Rockefeller on the subject of protection of classified material. He added that he was thinking out loud on the action on the Appropriations bill with reference to [] He gets the impression the matter is a lost cause but feels it should be opposed as a matter of principle, since it established a bad precedent. Slatinshek said the members of the Committee should speak up about the precedent involved and asked if we would provide them with a recapitulation in classified form for their background purposes [] for Representative Lucien Nedzi (D., Mich.) and Samuel Stratton (D., N.Y.). He would also like some discussion papers for floor use on the philosophical and practical issues involved.

23. [] LIAISON Paul Daley, FBI, called and said they are getting the Director of the FBI, Clarence Kelly, ready for his testimony before the Senate Government Operations Committee on Monday, 26 January. We discussed the general attitudes of the proposed testimony for Mr. Kelly and Mr. Colby. I told Daley I would send him a copy of Mr. Colby's letters to House Speaker Carl Albert (D., Okla.), Vice President Nelson Rockefeller, and Chairman Thomas Morgan (D., Pa.), House International Relations Committee. I also promised to send him an advance copy of the testimony Mr. Colby will give on 23 January, as soon as it was available.

24. [] LIAISON Called Charles Snodgrass, staff of House Appropriations Committee, and advised him that the Director has decided to terminate dissemination of the NID to the Committees on the Hill. I said the Director feels he should pull back a lot of this sensitive material before he leaves and let Ambassador Bush decide what he wants to send out. Snodgrass was most unhappy with this arrangement, saying he finds the Checklist totally unacceptable and the NID one of his most useful sources of information. He said he needs to know the sources of the information. He plans to talk to Chairman George Mahon (D., Tex.) about this, but feels the Chairman will probably go along with the Director's decision, although he, Snodgrass, would fight it.

7. [] LIAISON Maggie Young, in the office of Representative Bob Wilson (R., Calif.), called wanting the address of the magazine Counterspy. The address was furnished.

8. [] LIAISON Called Keith Mainland, Clerk & Staff Director, House Appropriations Committee, and he advised that Chairman George Mahon (D., Texas) had not signed the letter concerning steps needed to be taken to store sensitive material on the Hill.

9. [] LEGISLATION Discussed further with David Allen, Legislative Aide to Senator Lloyd Bentsen (D., Texas), proposed legislation to protect against unauthorized disclosure the identity of Agency assets. Comments on the staff proposal, prepared by [] OGC, were transmitted to Senator Bentsen's office later in the day.

10. [] LIAISON Bob Wolthius, White House staff, called to alert us to a letter being sent by Jack Marsh, Counsellor to the President, to all departments and agencies not to schedule congressional briefings or press conferences in competition with the President's State of the Union message. The Director and Mr. Thuermer, Assistant to the Director, were advised.

11. [] LIAISON Spoke with Clark McFadden, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, who was interested in a briefing on the capabilities of the cruise missile for himself and Larry Smith, also of the Committee staff. He said he had been advised that the Agency had done some analytical work on this topic.

Concerning the timing of Ambassador Bush's confirmation, McFadden said it looks like it would occur on the first week in February, but that it is possible that it would occur earlier.

McFadden confirmed that Chairman John Stennis (D., Miss.) would testify before the Senate Government Operations Committee probably on 2 February and he would like to review things with us after he and Ed Braswell, also of the Committee staff, have had a chance to finish their preliminary discussions with the Chairman.

It turned out that it was not the correct combination. I told Jane that we would look one more time to see if we could find anything on it.

While there, Guy McConnell, on the Committee's staff, advised that he was still working on corrections to Mr. Cary's two memos of the briefing of the Committee on 16 December 1975. I told him I would keep in touch with him on these.

6. [] LIAISON Stopped by the Senate Armed Services Committee and picked up several copies of their report on Mr. Bush's nomination, 6 January 1976. While there, I confirmed with the staff that the Agency had made arrangements to ride the jacket on Mr. Bush's confirmation hearings.

7. [] ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES
Delivered to Susan Koch, on the staff of Senator Thomas F. Eagleton (D., Mo.), two copies of the Agency directory of officials of the People's Republic of China and one copy of our Chiefs of State publication, per her request.

7. [] LIAISON Charles Kirbow, Senate Select Committee staff, called to determine if David Phillips would be interested in speaking to a Rotary Club in Texas. I told Kirbow we are at arms length with Mr. Phillips but provided him the phone number where Mr. Phillips can be reached.

9. [] LIAISON Advised Les Janka, NSC staff, that we would provide the material on legislative alternatives on aid to Angola as soon as possible. Janka and Col. Granger, NSC staff, have prepared a draft memo on this subject for General Scowcroft indicating that State and CIA would be providing further details. We also discussed some of the options of Sections 531 and 614 of the Foreign Assistance Act.

11. [REDACTED] LIAISON Paul Fridenberg, a professor at Tulane University serving a six month stint in the office of Senator Bennett Johnston (D., La.), called for unclassified information on Israeli defense and economic needs and I provided him the names of several publications which would be available from the Library of Congress and he was most appreciative.

12. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Allison Brenner, Subcommittee on Investigations, House International Relations Committee staff, concerning interest in a staff interview of Mr. Thomas Polgar in connection with the Subcommittee's investigation into the final days of Vietnam. I told her that Mr. Polgar was out of the country but if she could more specifically identify their interest we would be able to provide a substitute. The Subcommittee is planning a hearing on 26 January with Ambassador Graham Martin involving the plans for evacuation, the United States' role and that of the various Federal agencies in the closing days, the planning for the evacuation of American and Vietnamese citizens, inter-Governmental decision making, early evacuation by certain Federal agencies, the general assessment of the last days, and the reasons for holding the Americans there until the end. I told Brenner that I would do what we could and be back in touch.
